DR. WEEKS'S

Classical & English School,

167 Washington st.,

NEWARK, N. J.

This School has now been continued more than ten years, during which time many young men have been sent to College, and many more aided in their preparation for business.

The LATIN AND GREEK LANGUAGES are taught after the most approved method; and the fundamental branches of a Business Education are attended to with more than ordinary care.

BOOK-KEEPING is taught by Mr. GEORGE H. WEEKS, on the system of JONES, which, by making a new and interesting developement of its principles, enables the pupil to proceed understandingly to practice.

The great aim of the teachers is to train the pupil to prompt and vigorous thought. Nothing is done for display. Instead of public examinations of an uncertain character, an accurate account of each day's performances is kept, and sent home weekly for the inspection of the parent.

Tuition,—$6, $8, or $10 per quarter of eleven weeks, according to the studies pursued.

Books and stationery furnished, when desired, at the lowest prices; but no extra charges.

THE NEW JERSEY ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.

Commissioners appointed by the Legislature to Locate the Asylum.

Daniel Haines,	John Condit,
Thomas Arrowsmith,	Joseph Saunders,
Maurice Beasley.

The Asylum is to be located on the farm of the late John Titus, about two miles west of the city of Trenton on the River road, and within the bounds of the township of Ewing. The whole demesne embraces 111 acres, 88 of which are on the northerly side of the road, and 23 on the southerly. The northern portion rises easily from the road to the height of about twenty feet, where a space of some twenty acres of fine table land is attained, presenting the most beautiful spot within view. The soil is gravelly, and a slope bounds it on three sides. A belt of lofty forest trees, covering nearly thirty acres, protects this plateau on the north, and on the verge of the wood, and about 75 yards from the road, there is a site which commands a surpassing view of the surrounding country. Standing at this point, which is, perhaps, one hundred and fifty feet above tide level, the view extends down the valley of the Delaware as far as Bordentown. The 23 acres on the southerly side of the road, slope gradually to the feeder of the Delaware and Raritan Canal, extending some distance on its banks. A decent farm house and out buildings are on this division. But one of the greatest features of the place is a copious and far famed spring, which is situate a few yards north of the farm house. A basin of rude stone work pours out a never failing stream averaging about forty gallons per minute, of the softest, purest and coldest water in the world. The stream after passing through a stone milk house a little below, spreads into a pond, created by a small dam, furnishing water power which at one time was used for milling purposes. The whole place, above and below the road is susceptible of the highest cultivation. The capability for gardening and farming purposes, and the laying out of a due proportion of pleasant walks and drives within its limits, are all that could be desired.

Commissioners Appointed by the Governor, to Plan the Building and Superintend its Erection.

Rev. Eli F. Cooley, Ewing, Mercer,
Samuel Rush, Mount Holly, Burlington,
Calvin Howell, Whippany, Morris.

The following is an outline of the plan agreed upon by the commissioners:

A central building, 64 feet front by 84 deep. Two lateral wings, 120 feet front by 38½ feet deep, and two other wings running parallel with the former wings, but back of them, 90 feet front by 38½ deep. There will be projections at the ends of all the wings, both on the front and the rear, 30 feet wide, and 10 feet deep. The central building will be 4 stories high, and the wings 3 stories. John Nottman Esq., of Philadelphia, is the architect

THE MISSES BUCKNALL'S FEMALE SEMINARY,

No. 382 Broad-street.

In this institution, the more solid and useful branches of Female Education, are taught with special care, while all requisite attention is given to those of an Ornamental character.

The mode of Instruction adopted, is intended to exercise the reflecting and reasoning faculties, to promote habits of considerate and independent thought, and to impress a conscientious regard for religious obligations.

The science of vocal music is taught as a regular branch of education. All the pupils attending the Institution constitute the music class. This arrangement not only affords an agreeable relaxation from severe studies, but also proves an invaluable aid in the art and science of elocution.

The course of studies embraces Languages, Geography, Mathematics, Natural and Intellectual Science, Music, and Theology.

There is one Vacation and one Recess.

The Vacation commences at the close of the fourth term in July, and continues till the first Monday in September. The Recess comprehends the Christmas holidays.

NEWARK SELECT ENGLISH SEMINARY,
FOR
YOUNG MISSES AND MASTERS.

Located in Orange Street.

REUBEN PORTER, JR. Principal.

This institution will be conducted upon a principle which is designed to develop the reasoning faculties of the youth in every stage of their progress, to thoroughly ground them in the elementary branches, and render the acquisition dependent upon the expansion of the intellect and capability of the pupil. As the science of mathematics has a tendency to discipline, invigorate, and enlarge the powers of the mind, its elucidation will therefore be perfectly comprehensible, its demonstrations methodical, and its application to the mechanical and mercantile pursuits, thorough and practical.

The principal would with ineffable delight, return his sincere acknowledgments to those worthy gentlemen who have so liberally favored him with their patronage, assuring them and the public generally, that all his exertions will be concentrated in the welfare and advancement in literature, of those placed under his superintendence and instruction.

The next term of this institution will commence on Monday April 7th, and continue Twelve weeks.

The studies pursued are, Reading, Spelling, Writing, Geography, Grammar, Arithmetic, Declamation and Composition, Ancient and Modern History, Logic, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Botany Astronomy, Mineralogy, Geology.

Terms, from $2 50 to $6 00.

No Pupil received for a less time than one term, and no deduction for lost time, protracted sickness excepted. Pupils will be received at any time during the term. Patrons are solicited to visit the school frequently, as it has a tendency to stimulate the pupil to a more assiduous application to study.

A recess of a week is given at the Holydays—another during the Spring—and the usual Summer Vacation.

PIERSON'S
NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY,

FOR THE
71st YEAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,
FROM 4th OF JULY, 1846.

Important observations to those using this work.

Throughout this Directory, the christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are carefully alphabetically arranged, male and female, firms, &c. In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For example, a person seeking for—Pirsson, will not find the one sought for if he looks in the names of Pierson; so, also, for—Bonnell, he should not look among the Bunnels; and for Conger not in Congar; and for Parcels not look in Parsals or Parcells; not for Hays in Hayes.

This my Twelfth Edition comes forth, as usual, in good time, and with an increased population far exceeding any former period since the commencement of my Directory. Last year there were 5,800 names, this year 6,500; increase of names 700; and allowing four persons to a name, (which is the true ratio.) makes 2,800 more inhabitants than we had a year ago; and now stand in round numbers 26,000. There were built during the first nine months 218 buildings of various kinds, and the last three months about 50, making about two hundred and seventy within the year; and yet there were many families who could not get a house, or part of a house, to live in, when my Directory went to press.

Business of every kind has been put in motion, and manufactories established for making every description of articles, from a steam engine to a wooden nutmeg—more than one hundred of which are driven by Steam power, with unexampled rapidity and success; which I hope may be permitted to go ONWARD and UPWARD, and not DOWNWARD, DOWNWARD.

As to the Directory Department, I say that I have labored hard, and not faltered in my routine of duty from day to day for twelve long years, to furnish this Beautiful City with a Directory, which can't be beat for accuracy, arrangement, and taste, by any city in the United States. I have thus far been but poorly remunerated for my labors, but live in hopes of making something out of it, in time to come. But notwithstanding all my trouble, I have succeeded in keeping it alive thus far, (which no other citizen would have done,) and trust my labors will be appreciated, by not only BUYING, but PAYING for the DIRECTORY.

I give here a synopsis of the most useful matter, exclusive of names, contained in my twelve editions, viz:

- 1835 History of Newark; Statement of Business of the N. J. Railroad.
- 1836 History of Newark; Incorporation of Newark; City Government; Standing Committees, &c.
